*Be the change
you wish to see in the world. -Gandhi*

It's good for you and the world. Our world is experiencing an empathy crisis. Every day we learn of racism, bullying, suicide, war and other forms of violence and oppression. For many of us, we're left feeling fearful and alone, wondering if we can make a difference. Be the Change Movement provides an immediate, easy and powerful way to make the world a better place.

By committing to do one intentional Act of Change per day in service of others, you are already creating ripples of kindness. As you share about your experience, you can challenge others to join you and inspire even more people through the gift of your hope and humanity. You'll immediately experience the fulfillment of making a difference and know that you matter.

Anyone can join the Movement by committing to be in service to others and the world.
